

July 31, 2012

Thank you for your inquiry and for caring about local wildlife!

Unfortunately, our Wildlife Hotline system is currently down. If you are contacting us regarding a sick, injured or orphaned wild animal, please utilize the following resources to find care for the animal:

CONTAINED A WILD ANIMAL? If you have captured a sick, injured or orphaned animal and are certain it requires the care of a trained wildlife rehabilitator, please bring it to our one of Project Wildlife's Triage Centers:

Central Triage Center (Linda Vista area)

887 1/2 Sherman Street
(physical location on Custer Street)
San Diego, CA 92110

Open 7 days a week
Staffed 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. daily
Drop-off area open 24/7

North County Triage Center

2481 Palomar Airport Road
(n the same building as Animal Services)
Carlsbad, CA 92011

Open Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

WILDLIFE IN NEED OF RESCUE? If you have a wild animal in distress and need immediate assistance, please utilize the following resources:

- Wildlife Assist (raptors and shorebirds): (619) 921-6044
- Fund for Animals: (760) 789-2324
- SeaWorld:
Stranded Marine Mammal Program: (800) 541-SEAL (7325)
Pelican Hotline: (619) 225-4223
- Your local Animal Services Department:
San Diego County Emergency Hotline: (619) 236-2341*
Tell them that Project Wildlife's hotline phone system is current down.*

OUTSIDE SAN DIEGO COUNTY? Please refer to www.ccwr.org to find your nearest available wildlife rehabilitator, or call your local Animal Services Department.

OUTSIDE OF CALIFORNIA? Outside of California, please refer to your state's Department of Fish and Game (also called Department of Natural Resources in some states) for further information.